“Assenting to the ‘self-evident truth’ maintained in the American Declaration of Independence ‘that all men are created equal, and endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights—among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness,’ I shall strenuously contend for the immediate enfranchisement of our slave population”

William Lloyd Garrison, The Liberator, January 1, 1831

“We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men and women are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; ... because women do feel themselves aggrieved, oppressed, and fraudulently deprived of their most sacred rights, we insist that they have immediate admission to all rights and privileges which belong to them as citizens of the United States.”

Elizabeth Cady Stanton, “Declaration of Sentiments,” July 20, 1848
